Gualala Arts Center

This summer's Sid Waterman Classic Art Show promises to surpass last year's highly successful inaugural show that featured the work of Gualala Arts patron and renowned hot rod illustrator Rex Burnett. The emphasis will be on the machines, equipment, art and products from Gualala's fabled Waterman Racing Components facility.

Once again the highlight of the month-long show that opens July 9 and runs through August 1 will be the Gualala Arts Auto Show on July 17. Car enthusiasts, both local and statewide, will gather in the Arts Center parking lot to show off their vehicles that will be judged in eleven categories, antique auto to racecar and motorcycle. Hopefully, some gems hidden away in local barns will be included.

The exhibit will feature the craftsmanship of Waterman Racing Components, the business built by Sid Waterman in Gualala into a national racing powerhouse with satellite facilities at Indianapolis' Gasoline Alley and in Concord, North Carolina, the heart of NASCAR country. Every winner of the Indianapolis 500 for the last thirty years was equipped with a Waterman fuel pump.

Photos, art work, products, mechanical drawings, and more will provide a glimpse into what makes a championship vehicle run whether it is an IRL Indy car, a NHRA hot rod, a NASCAR racer, or a USAC champ car, sprint car, or midget. A featured exhibit is Sid's recreation of a top fuel dragster that set national records fifty years ago. This nostalgia car was lovingly recreated and fired up at last year's Pomona Winter Nationals.

This auto show was extremely well received last year and once again street rod buffs will fill Highway 1 for the run to Gualala. The event promises to become a permanent "happening." Only 100 entries will be accepted and slots are filling rapidly.

Not only does this event promote local industry and showcase the art involved in designing and building a vehicle, but it also allows the masterpieces that are created to be displayed publicly and provides a welcome boost to the local economy. It is another example of defining art inclusively for all the community.

GUALALA ARTS CHAMBER MUSIC SERIES PRESENTS:

THE EIGHTH ANNUAL SUMMER CHAMBER MUSIC WEEKEND

Roy Bogas and Friends

SAT., JULY 10, 2010 AT 7:30 P.M.
SUN., JULY 11, 2010 AT 4:00 P.M.
AT THE GUALALA ARTS CENTER

The Summer Chamber Music Weekend featuring Roy Bogas and Friends will be Saturday and Sunday, July 10-11, 2010. The Saturday concert will begin at 7:30 in the evening, and Sunday's will begin at 4:00 in the afternoon.

The eighth annual Summer Chamber Music Weekend is sure to be another sell-out performance of exquisite music. This traditional weekend of superb performances by pianist Bogas and outstanding musicians from the San Francisco Symphony is the biggest musical event of our concert season. Music lovers are invited to hear either one or both performances, for a fulfilling weekend of superb music performed by top artists.

In 2009, the ensemble had been expanded to include contrabass player Mark Wright, who played along with the other exciting musicians who had previously performed in Gualala: violinist Axel Strauss, violinist Amy Hiraga, violist Nancy Ellis, cellist Peter Wyrick, and, of course, pianist Roy Bogas.

For advance ticket purchase, go to Brown Paper Tickets or call them at 800-838-3006. To purchase tickets in person, visit the Gualala Arts Center or Dolphin Gallery in Gualala.

Summer Art Program for Youth

All children ages 5 - 13 years old are invited to participate in the Summer Art Program for Youth, sponsored by Gualala Arts. This program has been extremely popular in its past 19 years.

This year we're trying something new! All kids will have the opportunity to experience each class! Classes include Creative Arts and Crafts, Ceramics, Environmental Art, Performance Art, and Culinary Art!

The Summer Art Program for Youth starts July 6 and continues Tuesdays - Fridays through July 16 with classes starting each day from 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. Show up early at 9:15 a.m. on the first day, July 6!

Tuesday - Friday, July 6 - 9
Tuesday - Friday, July 13 - 16
9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Cost (materials included):

$250 per child if paid between June 2 and June 19.

$295 per child if paid between June 20 and July 1, if there is room available.

(No refunds after June 30; refunds before June 30 are subject to a $15 staff fee.)

$100 scholarships are available with a written request submitted with application.

The registration form is available online and at the Gualala Arts Center.

Fri, July 30, 7:30 p.m.

Sat, July 31, 7:30 p.m.

Sun, Aug. 1, 2:30 p.m. matinée

Art Center Theater is proud to announce the cast for their July production of Thornton Wilder's famous play, Our Town. With roles for twenty performers, this mainstay of American Theater almost requires a small town to stage it!

The first character to appear on stage is Mike Turner as the Stage Manager. He will show us around Grover's Corner, New Hampshire and introduce us to its many endearing citizens. There is Joe Crowell, the newspaper boy, played by Gavin Malik, and his brother Si played by Henry Power; Howie Newsome, the milkman portrayed by Alethia Davies; Simon Stimson, the choirmaster, performed by Dard Hunter; Mrs. Louella Soames, the town gossip, acted by Sabina Walla; the constable and the esteemed professor, both played by Jim Riley. Josephina Stoddard, the visitor in the graveyard, will be Claire McPherson. Then there are folks in the town who have no names - Janet Guess and Kit Bliss Jones will help them come to life.

Our Town revolves around the lives of two prominent families. The Gibbs family consists of Dr. Frank Gibbs and his wife Julia, played by Jim Littlejohn and Sandra Brewer and their children Rebecca and George, acted by Joselyn Malik and Jon Carlo. Charles Webb, the editor of the town newspaper and his wife Myrtle are performed by Sam Parsons and Amanda Woodward, and their two daughters, Molly and Emily are played by Shayla Buechner and Olivia Harrison. The Webb and Gibbs families are neighbors, giving true meaning to those old clichés about love and the "boy next door."

Buy your tickets early and prepare yourself for a magical evening as this talented troupe of players touch your heart! Our Town opens with a Gala Champagne Celebration on Friday, July 23 at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are $25 adults & $10 youth (17 and under). Performances continue on July 24, 25, 30, 31 and August 1. Friday and Saturday performance time is 7:30 p.m. and Sunday is at 2:30 p.m. Tickets are $15 for adults and $10 for youth (17 and under); $5 additional if purchased the day of the performance.

For advance ticket purchase, go to Brown Paper Tickets or call them at 800-838-3006.

To purchase tickets in person, visit the Gualala Arts Center or Dolphin Gallery in Gualala.

MADELINE KIBBE, SILK SCULPTURE LING-YEN JONES, SILVER JEWELRY

OPENING RECEPTION: SATURDAY, JULY 3, 2010, 5:00 P.M.
EXHIBIT REMAINS THROUGH AUGUST 4

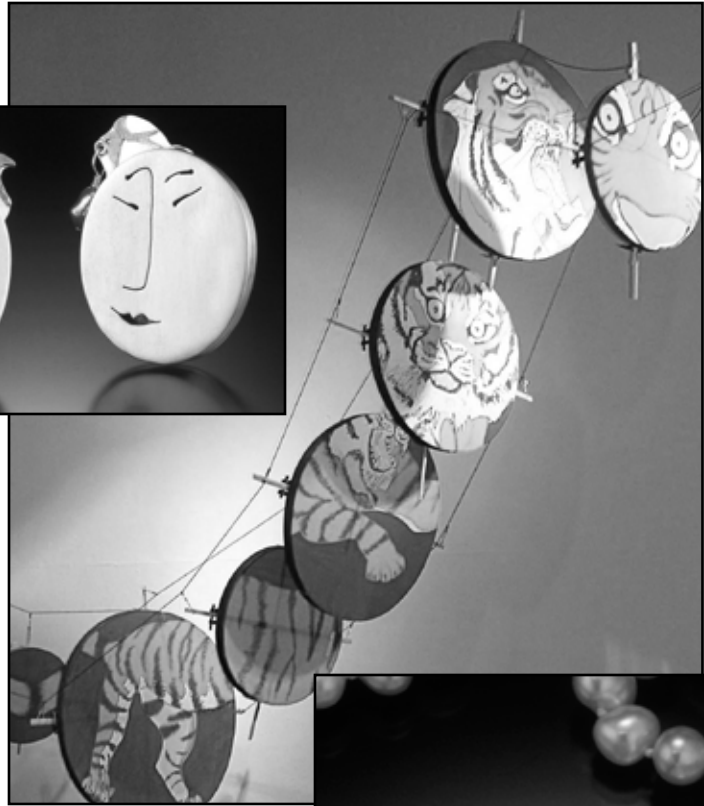

Ling-Yen Jones and Madeline Kibbe are friends and artists who work in very different media.

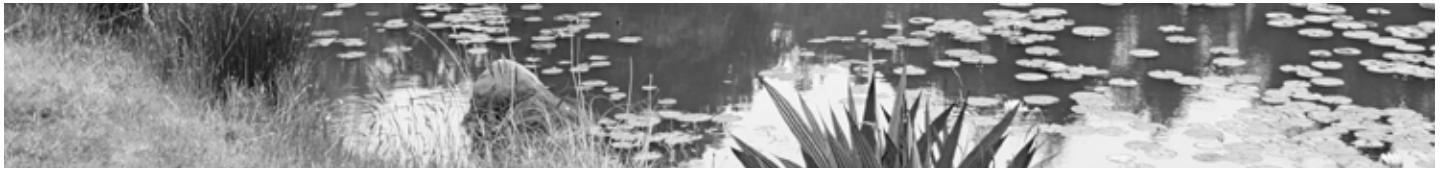

Over the years they have enjoyed several opportunities to work together and the results have been surprising and inspiring to both of them. They will once again be exhibiting their work together, this time at the Dolphin Gallery from the opening Saturday, July 3 from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. through August 4.

Ling-Yen Jones is an accomplished jeweler who has lived here on the North Coast for over ten years. Her work is mainly done in Sterling silver with a variety of gems. At once delicate and slightly mischievous, Jones' jewelry is imbued with the personality of its maker.

Madeline Kibbe grew up in Connecticut but has made her home here for almost twenty years. She studied printmaking in college but for the last many years has been painting on silk. Bold color and pattern are characteristic of her work. The foyer space at Gualala Arts Center will be ideal for exhibiting some large scale sculptures and kites.

The two artists will be showing their own work as well as combining their talents for some collaborative pieces.

A few notes about the plantings around the DePrima Terrace -

The following businesses gave generous discounts for plants:

Celeri & Son Nursery - at the Lions Club Rhody Breakfast.

Sloat Gardens Discount Plant Sales Lot in San Bruno.

Ventrella's Gualala Nursery & Trading Co.

Most of the major plants were donated by wonderfully generous folks. Thank you to:

Naomi Schwartz - Mature rhodys, fuschia and gunnera.

Don & Heidi Endemann - Japanese Maples.

John & CeeCee Haw - A Japanese Maple.

Ann Fitzgerald, Friends - A Dogwood tree.

Art & Penny Dreyer - A Dogwood tree and other plants.

Dolphin Volunteers - A weeping flowering Japanese cherry tree in memory of Frank Klembeck

Vicki Hodge & Tom McEneaney - Plants from their "Secret Garden" B & B.

Betty O'Neil - Plants from her garden.

Stan Morgan of Concord - Iris corns.

and native plants were transplanted from the wild, from Gualala Arts' and Gualala Redwoods' land.

BE THE NEXT FOOD NETWORK STAR

Wednesday, June 23 is the date for the next Dinner At Six.

Each dish will be based on a famous chef's recipe. We will feature Giada De Laurentiis delicious Shrimp Scampi. The rest of the menu will be equally exciting. To make things fun, we will play a Food Challenge game with celebrity judges.

Doors open a 5:00 p.m. with fantastic appetizers and drinks. The location is the Gualala Arts Center.

For $25 you get a fabulous meal, visit with friends, and get a chance to be the next Food Network star.

To reserve a ticket, please call Harriet Wright (785-2987). The last day to reserve tickets is Monday, June 14. If you have never participated in Dinner At Six and would like to please call Ben Klagenberg (785-3530).

You don't have to be a member of Dinner at Six to attend a dinner, but reservations are required.

Gualala Arts Garden Guild needs volunteers for "A Ladies & Gents Garden Luncheon" on Saturday, July 31st.

Volunteers will assign tables at Frog Song, make morning coffee & tea, set up tables, chairs & umbrellas, decorate tables, kitchen assistants for cookies, assemble salad & fruit skewers, bar serve bar and buffet, and of course, clean-up!

Please call Karen at the Gualala Arts front desk, 707.884.1138 to sign up as a volunteer or call Suzie Pollard for more detailed information 785-3972.

WATERING CREW

While this year's rains have been more than ample, we do anticipate a need for a hand irrigation crew this summer.

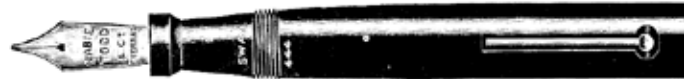

It will involve one day a month — if we get 10+ volunteers. Call Art Dreyer at 707-785-3580 for more information and to sign up.

THE TUESDAY BOYS

Tuesday, May 25th, was a special one for the regular Gualala Arts' Tuesday morning maintenance crew. The Board of Directors' President, Michele Marshall, and her husband George (one of the boys), gave a thank-you banquet picnic for the excellent work they did on the DePrima Terrace.

The tables laden with barbeque fare and more were set up inside next to the windows to see the stonescape and lovely garden. It was a rainy day but spirits were high. Toasts and roasts were made all around. Art Dreyer said it best, "If it isn't fun, then forget it!" Art also said, "People have been saying the DePrima Terrace is a miracle, but it really was hard work!" Sus agreed and noted that they were his favorite bunch of guys!

The wives, present, were also acknowledged for sacrificing their partners on a weekly basis. Some of the other projects they are working on to keep the Arts Center up and running are installing eighteen emergency exit lights around the building, gathering art for Art Off the Wall, and the best of all, an outdoor wood-burning oven. They are the best!

Articles for August's Sketches are due Friday, June 30, 2010.

Talking About Art

LISTENING TO YOUR MUSE: HOW THE CREATIVE PROCESS WORKS IN ART 7:00 p.m. July 22, 2010

Having the ability to create something new is often referred to as being able to "listen to your muse." The process works differently for each of us. No two artists approach the creative process in exactly the same way. We will discuss how our individual creative processes work. We will also consider what happens when these processes do not work and how, if we know how, we can bring these slumps to an end.

"Talking About Art" is for both academically trained, self trained artists and for non-artists who want to learn more about art. We encourage all to attend who want to talk about art and also those who just want to listen.

Open Clay Studio

The clay studio offers a drop-in Open Studio facility for local artists and visitors, where they can learn how to make and decorate hand-built pottery items.

The Studio is open
Monday - Friday,
10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

There is an instructor on site during all open studio hours.
