Free Concert by Air Force Band

- Friday, May 21, 7:30 p.m.

Everyone is invited to see the only remaining active-duty Air Force band west of the Rockies, free of charge, on Friday, May 21 at 7:30 p.m.

The Pacific Coast Winds, the chamber music ensemble of the United States Air Force Band, will play a broad repertoire of preeminent wind music ranging from Mozart serenades to the antics of PDQ Bach. With instrumentation consisting of a double woodwind quintet and brass quintet augmented by percussion, the Pacific Coast Winds musicians are exceptionally skilled and versatile, possessing music degrees from some of the most prestigious institutions in the United States and abroad.

Major Douglas C. Monroe, Commander and Conductor of the United States Air Force Band of the Golden West, is from Livonia, Michigan. He has led performances for several distinguished officials including Bill Clinton, George Bush, and America's Ambassadors to the United Kingdom, Germany, France, Belgium and Italy. He has led performances in many of the world's finest concert halls including New York's famed Carnegie Hall.

The mission of the Pacific Coast Winds is to establish, grow and foster community relations with the general public by providing quality musical performances and communicating the positive message of the United States Air Force.

Bay Area Basket Makers Exhibit

- Opening Reception: Saturday, May 8, 5 p.m.

The Bay Area Basket Makers return to Gualala Arts Center for their annual show and sale of fine crafted basketry and gourd art. Come and meet the artists at the opening reception on Saturday, May 8 from 5 to 7 p.m. The show will remain through June 6. Admission is free.

The show is a revelation for fiber art enthusiasts, collectors and makers of art who appreciate the fine, labor-intensive craft of basketry. All basketry techniques will be represented at the show.

Bay Area Basket Makers is an 80+ member group that have mastered the arts of coiling, twining, plaiting, weaving, and knotting. The group has evolved and enlarged to create its own unique and award-winning styles.

Baskets and Watercolors at the Dolphin Gallery this Month

- Opening Reception: Saturday, May 1, 5-7 p.m.

Ring in the month of May with the Dolphin Gallery and artists Denise Roumbanis (basketry) and Melba Linscheid (watercolor) at their opening reception on Saturday, May 1. The festivities kick off at 5 p.m. and continue until 7 p.m.—all are invited to enjoy free refreshments, appetizers and good will. There is no charge for admission. If you miss the opening, be sure to stop by the Dolphin before the exhibit ends on June 2.

Over the past eight years, artist Denise Roumbanis has been creating unique baskets that intertwine nature's offerings—pine needles, redwood bark, kelp and vines. Inspired by forest and beach walks, Denise gives each piece a distinct flavor by working stones, feathers, or beads into the design. "Since I've been weaving, my love for nature has grown even deeper. I experience seasonal changes differently and I recognize her strengths, delicacies and beauty more than I ever have," states Roumbanis.

A resident of Anderson Valley, Denise uses her hands as her main artistic tool, boasting years of experience in stitching, macramé, jewelry making, and ultimately basketry. Her work has been featured at Art in the Redwoods, Café Glad and Rookie-To Gallery.

Anchor Bay resident and native Californian, Melba Linscheid explores both traditional and contemporary styles of watercolor. Stirred by the striking landscapes and powerful moods of the Pacific, Melba's work has received numerous awards and is a treasured addition to several private collections. She has also exhibited at Art in the Redwoods.

After her retirement, Melba began her studies at Diablo Valley College, under the instruction of Jan Fon Woo. She has attended numerous workshops led by Jane Burman, Jack Laycox, and Richard Yep. A member of the East Bay Water Color Society and the Society of Western Art, Melba formerly served as president of the Delta Arts Association in Antioch.

When asked what moves her to create, the artist states, "I love to paint and try new things with watercolor, and most of my inspiration comes from my many worldly travels and the beauty of nature."

Point Arena High School Art

- Opening Reception: Friday, May 7

From May 7 through June 6, the creative energies of Point Arena High School students will vibrate the walls of the Elaine Jacob Foyer. An opening reception will be held in honor of these fresh-faced talents on Friday, May 7 from 5 to 7 p.m. All are invited to meet and greet the artists and to enjoy complimentary refreshments. Admission is free.

Mark your calendars for this one folks—it's a double feature! Following the opening reception, Point Arena High School students will present "Shades of Gray," four one-act plays. Curtain time is 7 p.m. Admission is $5—cost for seniors and students is $2.

Friends of the Gualala River (FoGR) will for the first time sponsor an award for the student art show. A cash prize of $50 will be awarded to the student who best captures the spirit of Mendocino ecology. For information on Friends of the Gualala River, call 785-3431 or see gualalariver.org.

Members' Show: "Click"

- June 12 – July 6

"Click," a photo show for Gualala Arts members will be showing in the foyer June 12 through July 6. Photographs will include the traditional and digital darkroom methods.

The show will also include two- and three-dimensional art and crafts which use photography. Please contact Barbara Pratt at bp@mcn.org or call Gualala Arts for more information and entry forms. Entry forms deadline is June 3.

Environmental Art Show

- September 18 – October 10

Gualala Arts will host a members' show: "Environmental Art—Artists Working with Nature" at Gualala Arts Center in September. Here are some important dates:

Deadline for Submission of Proposal: June 15.
Installation of Artwork: September 13–17.
Exhibit Date: September 18–October 10.

The artwork should celebrate nature and the environment and involve the viewer in seeing nature in new ways. Artists are encouraged to incorporate aspects of the Sonoma/Mendocino coastline in their work. Site-specific works are possible but not required. Both indoor and outdoor space are available. Cash prizes will be awarded by several environmental organizations.

For a prospectus go to gualalaarts.org or send a SASE to Ursula Jones, PO Box 912, Gualala CA 95445.

Concert Series to Host Musica Pacifica

- Sunday, May 16, 4 p.m.

Gualala Arts Concert Series is privileged to host Musica Pacifica at 4 p.m. on Sunday, May 16 at Gualala Arts Center.

Musica Pacifica, a period instrument wind and string ensemble led by artistic directors Judith Linsenberg and Elizabeth Blumentstock, has been performing, touring, and recording since 1990. Mining a rich vein of Baroque literature, the group performs the spirited chamber concerti of Vivaldi and Telemann, colorful dance suites from the courts and opera houses of France, and the more intimate solo, duo, and trio sonatas from European countries. Musica Pacifica has been described by the press as "some of the best in the world" (Alte Musik Aktuell). Living in the San Francisco Bay area, the artists are members of the Philharmonia Baroque and appear with many other prominent early-music ensembles nationally and abroad.

Musica Pacifica's stylish, high-energy, virtuoso performances have consistently received enthusiastic reviews from audiences and critics alike. They have appeared in numerous chamber and early-music concert series throughout the United States and have performed in festivals in Germany and Austria.

Among their five CD releases, their 2-CD Marais, Pieces en trio on the Virgin/Veritas label received a 5-star rating from the European Goldberg magazine. Their Telemann CD was described by Early Music America Magazine as "superbly elegant . . . exemplifying the finest in historical performance today."

The American Record Guide stated, "Musica Pacifica is made up of some of the finest baroque musicians in America. Their clear, clean sound and preoccupation with music rather than style makes the ensemble one of the best I have heard on disc. The playing just couldn't be better!"

Tickets are $15 and may be purchased at the door, in advance at Gualala Arts Center, or by calling 884-1138.

Gualala Arts Center Theater Auditions

- Sunday, May 2, 1:30 p.m. & Tuesday, May 4, 6:30 p.m.

Gualala Arts Center Theater announces auditions for Neil Simon's London Suite on Sunday, May 2, 1:30–3 p.m. and Tuesday May 4, 6:30–8 p.m. Performances will take place July 16 through 18, and July 23 through 25. Rehearsals start in early June. Call Kathy Hitt 884-3744 or Lynne Atkins 884-3838 for info.

Highway One Jazz Choir Concert

- Saturday, May 9, 3 p.m.

The Highway One Jazz Choir celebrates 21 years of singing together with a concert on Sunday, May 9 at 3 p.m. at Gualala Arts Center.

Many old favorites will be on the program which will include "Rodgers and Hammerstein on Broadway." In 1998 the pair were cited by Time Magazine and CBS News as among the 20 most influential artists of the 20th century, and in 1999 they were jointly commemorated on a U.S. postage stamp. "'S Wonderful" was created by George and Ira Gershwin, brothers who began collaborating in 1924. Cole Porter, who composed "In the Still of the Night," wrote his first song at the age of ten, and by eleven had one of his songs privately published. The music for "Honeysuckle Rose" was written by Thomas "Fats" Waller, who was the son of a preacher and learned to play the organ in church.

Carolyn Steinbuck, who teaches at both Santa Rosa Junior College and College of the Redwoods, is the conductor. The choir will be accompanied by Marion James, piano, Daney Dawson, bass, and Dan Albrecht, drums. Admission is free as a gift to the community, though donations are requested to help cover expenses. Refreshments will be served.

Volunteers Make It Happen!

The April Sketches mailing party consisted of these valuable volunteers: Carrie Krieger, Helen Klembeck, Cheryl Outlaw and Beverly Sloane.

Thanks to Carrie Krieger for writing thank-you notes to new and renewing Gualala Arts members.

Doug and Barbara Hein housed Sea Tones performers Kenny Blackwell and Dorian Michael.

Roy Austin, Phil Atkins, Dave Badger and Art Dryer hung the amphitheater overhead shades.

Dick Halley and Walt Guenther built shelves in the ceramic and storage rooms.

Many volunteers helped with the successful Whale and Jazz Festival.

The Landscape Committee moved boulders, rebuilt benches and planted rhododendrons.

Everyone involved in making the Poetry event, "Roots and Branches," a success.

African Safari at Gualala Arts Center

- Monday, May 3, 7:30 p.m.

East Africa is one of the world's richest wildlife environments. Come share Steve Gadol's unique and exciting experiences there on Monday, May 3 at 7:30 p.m. at Gualala Arts Center. Admission is a $5 donation at the door.

In September 2003 Steve Gadol and his wife Jeanne had the extraordinary experience of traveling there for a privately guided photo safari in Kenya. With their guide, Tim Trench, they visited four of the country's most beautiful areas. This program will be based around a video that Mr. Gadol made of their trip. It features many of exotic animals and birds that live there that and is set to music of the region. There will also be some discussion about how the trip was set up, and about trade-offs between a custom safari and a packaged tour.

The safari started in the Samburu to the north of Nairobi. The Samburu is a photographer's paradise. It offers unique vistas of rounded, rugged hills and arid undulating plains. Its mix of wood, grassland and forest is home to a wide variety of animal and birdlife. Game viewing is excellent with several rare and striking species such as the reticulated giraffe, gerenuk, Oryx, and Grevy's zebra occurring in large numbers. Elephant, Somali ostrich, hippo, crocodile, buffalo, lion, leopard, cheetah, and hyena are also common, all drawn by the beautiful Ewaso Nyiro River.

Both Steve and Jeanne are avid photographers. Mr. Gadol also spends time working with computer software and networking. His career in the computer industry spanned 30 years. At the time he retired last year, he was the Director of Software Technology for the Volume Systems Division at Sun Microsystems. Mr. Gadol's other interests include music, traveling, and cooking.

New Culinary Arts Guild

The newly formed Culinary Arts Guild of Gualala Arts has been busy. The group provided tasty hors d'oeuvres and sweets for "The Redwood Coast Celebrates Poetry" and the Whale and Jazz Festival. They served three selections of hors d'oeuvres—seafood, chicken, beef and a vegetable plate, as well as a choice of three deserts.

If you are interested in the culinary arts and would like to participate, please call 884-1138.

Art in the Redwoods Festival Is Approaching

- Saturday and Sunday, August 21 and 22, 10 a.m.–5 p.m.

It's time to start the planning and preparation for this year's 43rd annual Art in the Redwoods Festival, to be held on August 21 and 22. This major event in our small north coast town brings thousands of visitors to Gualala Arts' beautiful grounds and facilities. The crafts section of the show is held outside and consists of about 50 vendors. The indoor fine arts exhibit is open all types of media and to amateur to professional artists. Artists wishing to participate will need to turn in their entry forms early, as there is a limit of 420 works this year. Live music, delicious food and drink, and family fun activities round out the event. Entry forms will be mailed out in next month's issue of Sketches. Turn them in early!
