

Inside is information on these events in January:

- 1 Arts Center closed on New Year's Day.
- 2 Pick up of unsold Holiday Boutique items at the Dolphin.
- 9 Disaster Preparedness Lecture by Ken Reynoldson at 7:30 p.m.
- 10 Last day of the North Coast Artists Guild Wet Paint Exhibit.
- 14 Opening reception for Frank Schueler Introspective Exhibit at the Dolphin 5 – 7 p.m.
- 14 Opening reception for the Bill Heick & Cameron Macauley Historical Photo Show 5 – 7 p.m.
- 14 Opening reception for the Lars Johnson Painting Exhibit from 5 – 7 p.m.
- 21 Skyflower Concert at 7:30 p.m.
- 29 Gualala Arts Piano Group Recital at 3 p.m.

Coming in February:

- 6 "Truth and Beauty" – Lecture by Genevieve Wilson at 7:30 p.m.
- 11 Opening reception for Small Works Gualala Arts Members' Exhibit 5 – 7 p.m.
- 11 Opening reception for Elementary School Art Exhibit 5 – 7 p.m.
- 11 Hearts for Arts Fundraiser for the Schools 10 – 4 p.m.
- 25 Pacific Coast Community School Benefit Concert by Texas Jon at 7:30 p.m.

Looking ahead. . .

The Redwood Coast Whale & Jazz Festival will be on Saturday, April 1. Plan on having an afternoon of wine/beer/chowder tasting while listening to The New Orleans Traditional Jazz Band from Sonoma County. The main event in the evening will be the Michael O'Neill Quintet featuring San Francisco's premier jazz vocalist, Kenny Washington, with the Highway One Jazz Choir opening the performance.

January 2006

Wishing everyone Seasons' Greetings
and a Happy New Year!

U.S Postage Paid
Nonprofit Org.
Permit #1
Gualala, CA
95445

Promoting public interest and participation in the arts in our community since 1961.

46501 Gualala Road
P.O. Box 244
Gualala, CA 95445
707-884-1138
e-mail: info@GualalaArts.org
website: www.GualalaArts.org

Gualala Arts Center is open:
9 a.m. – 4 p.m. weekdays
12 – 4 p.m. weekends