

INTEREST GROUPS

All meetings are at Gualala Arts Center unless otherwise indicated.

BASKET MAKERS

Second Thursday, June 8, from 10 - 1 p.m.

Gerda Randolph: 785-2206

Free to Gualala Arts members; guests pay $10. Call for more information on current projects and materials.

CHAMBER MUSIC SERIES COMMITTEE

Third Wednesday, June 21, at 1 p.m.

Joan Jordan: 785-2549

This is the group that presents a classical musical program once a month. Join to meet famous musicians, and to make their stay in Gualala a joyous part of their performance.

CULINARY ARTS GUILD

Ben Klagenberg at 785-3530

The Culinary Arts Guild is a group of folks who enjoy cooking. They raise money for Gualala Arts through the food - and now drink - they prepare at the Arts Center. Call for more information.

DINNER AT SIX

Ben Klagenberg: 785-3530

The members are organized into host groups and each group hosts a dinner once a year. It's a lot of fun and a chance to meet new people. All are welcome to join, and there is no initial fee. Just sign up by calling Gualala Arts Center, 884-1138.

GUALALA ARTS BOOK CLUB

Morning Session: Wednesday, June 7 at 10 a.m. at the home of Jan Vanolia in Gualala. Call 884-9733 if you plan to attend.

Afternoon Session: Thursday, June 15 at 1 p.m. at the home of Patty Friedman in Sea Ranch. Call 785-2838 if you plan to attend.

The book selected for June is The Museum Guard by Howard Norman. The selected book for July is Heir to the Glimmering World by Cinthia Ozick.

GUALALA ARTS SINGERS

Mondays, 6 - 8 p.m.

Jan Curl: 785-1098

Gualala Arts is sponsoring a new singing group dedicated to mostly four-part harmony, a cappella music directed by Josh Kieselhorst. Reading music is not required.

PHOTOGRAPHY GROUPS

Wildlife: First Sunday at 1 p.m.

Forum: Second Thursday at 7 - 9 p.m.

Barbara Pratt: bp@mcn.org

PACIFIC PIECEMAKERS QUILT GUILD

Friday, June 16, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Cynthia Daniels: 884-1270

The semi-annual Comfort Quilt Workshop will be held all day in the Coleman Auditorium. Any level of sewing skills can be put to good work - even if you only cut threads. Call for details of what you can do or bring. This event is known for bringing happiness and goodwill to everyone who takes part in it. These quilts are donated to local emergency organizations to be used anytime someone needs an extra bit of warmth and comfort. Caution: making comfort quilts can become an addiction.

PLEIN AIRE GROUP

Mondays 10 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Bruce Jones: 884-3381

Artists of all skill-levels who use any media are invited to meet to paint on location. No fees. Just show up and be prepared to paint.

MENDONOMA WOODWORKERS

Thursday, June 8 at 2 p.m.

Jim Tackett: 785-1024; Dave Winsor: 785-9324

The goal for this new group is to be a resource for area woodworkers. Each meeting will have a specific topic for discussion such as tool-sharpening, safety, designing a small shop and finding the right tools for you. An online list-serve has been set up to keep the members informed and in touch.

READER'S THEATER

Tuesday, June 2 at 7p.m.

David Skibbins, 785-9534

Reader's Theater will be reading Christopher Sergels's To Kill a Mockingbird, based on Harper Lee's powerful Pulitzer Prize winning 1961 novel. This is a play about a father's love for his children and their love for him and about growing up in rural Alabama during the depression. It is about dignity, prejudice, and racial tolerance.

Can you see yourself in a class such as this one on watercolors by Hewson?
