

Sketches

February 2007 Newsletter

SPOTLIGHT ON WORKSHOPS

“Gualala Arts IS: Gualala Arts Instructors Show,” the first Burnett Gallery exhibit of 2007, showcases the wealth of talent brought to the South Coast by a number of artists who have, or will, offer workshops at the Gualala Arts Center. The show, which opens on Saturday, January 13, runs through Sunday, February 4.

Curator Karen Bowers has assembled in one show a stunning array of skills to be learned in workshops such as painting, sculpture, fiber art, paper-making, basketry, jewelry, ceramics, glass, and more. “Gualala Arts IS” brings home the idea that here is a workshop that can enrich everyone’s life.

Photos of artworks: glassware by Fred Cresswell, watercolor by Fred Graff, floral abstract by Karen Bowers, basketry by Gerda Randolph, quail in colored pencils by Barbara Krans Jenkins and Chinese brush painting by Xie Tianzi.