Jennie Henderson: 882-2270, mhenders@mcn.org

Spinners, felters, knitters, weavers, and nimble-fingered fiber people welcome. Come share your knowledge and experience, and be inspired by others.

GRAFTREKS - INDIA AND TURKEY

Phil and Ann Graf are looking for a few intrepid travelers for their upcoming trips. India is scheduled for November 2007 and Turkey for May 2008. We custom craft each fully escorted two week itinerary with you in mind, and with features not found in mass tourism. The trip offers good value for the money, and a portion of each ticket benefits Gualala Arts.

Our proven India itinerary – 6-23 November – tours the Golden Triangle: Delhi, Agra and its Taj Mahal, and Rajasthan's exotic cities of Jaipur, Udaipur and Jodhpur.

The Turkey itinerary – 12-26 May – is an iteration of a successful 2004 tour.

If you are interested in joining a small group – maximum 24 – for an intense, personalized four-star adventure at a three-star price, call or e-mail us for further details not available here. Phil and Ann Graf at graphil@bigplanet.com or (707) 785-9213.

READER'S THEATER

Tuesday, July 3 at 7 p.m.

Tina Vasvada at 785-3681.

The group will be reading the hilarious comedy "Lysistrata" by Aristophanes, first produced in 411 B.C. This political satire describes how the women of Athens and Sparta put a stop to the bellicose antics of their husbands, who have been involved for many years in the Peloponnesian War. Its theme may well be of relevance in today's time of anti-war protests. It provides much insight in how little human behavior has changed over time. Listeners are always welcome.
