A Garden for Poetry Exhibit

~Registration deadline – Feb. 29~

Artists and poet-artists are invited to participate in an exhibit of art and poetry to be held in the Elaine Jacob Foyer from March 8 to April 6, 2008.

This show will be combined with installations of scenes by the garden guild so we are looking for works on the walls. Works are encouraged, but not required to have connections to the theme of gardens and plants. All pieces for the show must have a combination of poetry and art. The artists can illustrate the poems of others as long as they have permission granted by the poet. Short phrases from well-known poems are not considered an infringement of copyright. The purpose of the show is to increase artists' appreciation of poetry and to show visitors how art can enhance the appreciation and enjoyment of poetry.

Each artist may submit up to two framed pieces for the walls for this non-juried show. Send a completed registration form with $5 for each work by February 29 to Poetry Exhibit 2008, Gualala Arts, P.O. Box 244, Gualala, CA 95445. Bring the pictures, ready to hang, to the Gualala Arts Center on Wednesday, March 5 from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. The opening reception is on Saturday, March 8 from 5 – 7 p.m. On the weekend of March 29 – 30 will be the traditional poetry events. The show will be up through the Whale and Jazz Festival so there will be excellent exposure to out-of-town visitors for your artwork. Pickup of unsold works is Monday, April 7 from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Annual Quilt Challenge Announced

Quilters everywhere find the concept of a “quilt challenge” irresistible. For over a dozen years our annual Quilt Challenges have delighted residents and visitors to our coast with colorful, creative examples of the art and craft of quilting. Even before local quilters organized to form Pacific Piecemakers Quilt Guild in 1996, they sponsored annual challenge exhibits at Gualala Arts, each with a special theme or a required fabric or design element. Rules have always been simple, and there's no judge or jury: it's all about participation.

Challenge quilts emerge from such themes as: Artistic Expression, The Nature of Things, Something's Fishy, The Beauty of Mathematics, the Millennium, Express Yourself (Self-Portraits), or a specific quilting pattern such as Log Cabin or last year's “Perfect Ten” and this year's “Flights of Fantasy.” In preparing their projects for these exhibits, quilters of all levels stretch to expand their skills and creativity – and that's the essence of “challenge.” The result is an exciting event that involves the wider community, as hundreds of people either attend the opening reception, or visit the show afterwards.

PPQG's 2008 Challenge, “I found it in the Library,” invites quilters to interpret the theme as broadly or narrowly as they wish. This exhibit will open March 8 and run through April 6. Chairing this event is Anna Hine.
