

“Alternatives” Photography Exhibit in the Burnett Gallery Opening Reception Saturday, December 8 from 5 – 7 p.m.

“Wedding Shoes” by Dorise Ford

Seventeen 2-D and 3-D artists have been busy this summer creating new works of art exploring the use of photography in unusual ways. Sharon Nickodem, exhibit curator, challenged the artists to expand the definition of photography, by using alternative processes, methods, and media.

Visitors to the exhibit can expect to be surprised, amused, and enthralled by the imaginative art on display. There will be a wide range of subjects represented: high heels, Greece, night lights, peacocks, ceramic blossoms, nudes, and even a little destruction.

There is a wonderful group of artists participating; some as individuals, and some in collaboration with others. Well-known local photographers as well as artists in other media will join forces for this avant garde view of photography.

“Shell” by Bill Apton
