Workshops

Take this opportunity to learn about cooking a healthy meal, or expand your skills in quilting. Always wanted to learn to knit, think about how great it would be to snuggle up in your own hand-made booties on a cold North Coast evening. Karen Bowers is offering a great watercolor workshop. She's easy to work with and will encourage you to become brave with your paintings. Annie Murphy Springer is also offering a great watercolor class and will have you creating "frameable" art in just eight hours.

Fall seems to have some of our best weather and many people plan their vacation with a room and a workshop. If you are an out of town workshop participant, please see our Visitor Information webpage that includes a listing of local lodgings & restaurants. If you mention you are taking a Gualala Arts workshop, some of the listed establishments will give you a discount.

Cooking and Tasting Wholesome Foods

Instructors: Naomi Schwartz and Caren Cramer
 Phone: (707) 884-3393
 When: Wednesdays September 10, 17, 24
 Time: 4- 6:00
 Tuition: Members $150 Non-members $165

A series of three classes exploring nourishing foods that taste good and are healthy for you. Each class will begin with information by Caren Cramer, a nutritional therapist, followed by cooking demonstrations and tastings by Naomi Schwartz, an accredited professional chef. There will be opportunities for hands on cooking and for you to suggest foods you would like to learn to cook.
