

Festival of Trees Marketplace
Friday - Saturday, November 28 - 29, 2008, 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Gualala Arts Center

It's time to plan for the Festival of Trees scheduled for Thanksgiving weekend, November 28th & 29th. This is a major Gualala Arts fundraising event which features several holiday oriented venues, including a Fantasy Forest of decorated trees and a lane of gingerbread houses to be auctioned.

Once again, there will be a Kringle's Craft Village with artists demonstrating their crafts in the Coleman Auditorium transformed into a turn-of-the-century wonderland. All crafts will be handmade and original. Mrs. Claus Confectionery and Bake Shoppe will be open with their luscious hand-made candies, cookies and breads. Live entertainment will be throughout the Festival.

In the Elaine Jacobs Foyer you will find heartier faire served by the lumber jacks at the Old Gualala Mill Cookhouse. The Stage Road Saloon will be serving their secret recipe, Scrumpy!

This year we have the Pacific Piecemakers Quilt Guild in the Burnett Gallery. They will be joined by the Gualala Arts Basketmakers, Beads' N Beyond and the Gualala Arts Wood Workers.

Upstairs has been turned into a Magical Gingerbread House for children complete with visits from Santa Claus. Be sure to bring your camera for that special holiday photo.

Get in the spirit with an old mill town theme. Pull out the plaid shirt and join us as a volunteer or a guest. There should be something for everybody!
