

We're off to see the Wizard!

For nearly one hundred years the story of "The Wizard of Oz" has given faithful service to the young in heart and time has been powerless to put its kindly philosophy out of fashion. To those of you who have been faithful in return, Art Center Theater offers its 2008 winter production of this timeless classic. With a talented cast of 33 local coastal residents, Munchkinland, the City of Oz, Dorothy and her traveling companions will live again on the stage of Gualala Arts.

Performances are scheduled for December 4, 5, 6, 11, 12 & 13 at 7:00 p.m. and December 7 & 14 at 2:00 p.m. Prices are $20 for adults and $10 for youth 12 and under ($5 more for all tickets if purchased the day of the performance). * Thursday, December 4 is the final dress rehearsal and tickets are half price.

This show is sure to sell out - so don't wait, follow the yellow brick road to purchase your tickets for "The Wizard of Oz!"

Artist Insight

"We all know well that mistakes are more easily detected in the works of others than in one's own...When you are painting you should take a flat mirror and often look at your work within it, and it will then be seen in reverse, and will appear to be by the hand of some other master, and you will be better able to judge of its faults than by any other way. -Leonardo da Vinci, 1490 from:"How to Think like Leonardo daVinci" by Michael J. Gelb, 1998. This and other fascinating books are available at the Gualala Arts Library upstairs at the Center.

I am personally looking at every decision we make with the following criteria in mind:

1. How does it impact our members, patrons, artists and staff?
2. Does it make sense financially?
3. Is it sustainable?

I am a firm believer in this triple bottom line. We have upgraded service to our clients, saved GA money and it is very sustainable. I am very pleased to be partnering up with Brown Paper Tickets. -Sus
