Gratitude

(Excerpt from Coleman Hall dedication on June 12)

Gratitude is such a powerful concept on so many levels for me.

It is a noun, derived from the Latin root gratus, which means "pleasing" or "thankful," and its modern definition is "the quality of being thankful; readiness to show appreciation for and to return kindness." Its very definition implies the exchange of kindness... what a beautiful thing!

But it's a simple noun....huh....

After researching the etymology and definition of gratitude I was blown away that it is classified as a noun. A noun...I always thought of nouns as being something tangible: a person, place or thing... SO gratitude is actually a thing....huh...

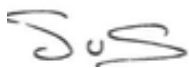

I have not thought of gratitude as a thing...I thought of it as a feeling...but apparently those are also nouns. So I guess it makes sense that the more you start to gather these gratitudes, the more of those gratitudes you can share. Thus perpetuating the cycle, like looking into a mirror behind a mirror... it goes on infinitely.

It really seems to me that the power of philanthropy is in the gratitude of giving. It is through giving with generosity that the ripple effect is set into motion. The recipient also needs to accept the gift with gratitude, knowing that the giver is receiving as much or more from the exchange. It's cyclical, and beautiful, when that gratitude is reciprocal...and its ripples keep expanding and multiplying.

The power of love and gratitude never ceases to amaze me. I have sincere gratitude for each and every one of you...my cup runneth over!

For every gift of time, money, skills, or energy, there is a ripple of thankfulness, which radiates outwards and affects our Arts Center, our community, and our selves.

We are indeed grateful for all that we have accomplished... together...

David "Sus" Susalla, Executive Director

AUTOMOBILIA

Celebrate the art of the automobile in this annual exhibit that delights all who see it and complements the magnificent artistry of the Auto Show taking place Saturday, July 16.

Automobiles are visual, mechanical, emotional, and spiritual works of art. They spur people's creativity, moving them to make their own cars into works of art through modification and customization, or creating automotive themed art. Just take a visit to the Blackhawk Collection, the Academy of Art Automobile Museum or the Peterson Automotive Museum to see that great cars are objects of beauty and inspiration.

From the White House to the Sea

In his colorful presentation, Rick Paulus leads attendees on a journey from the White House to the high seas. Using calligraphy as his storytelling medium, Paulus shares vignettes gleaned from his years spent at the highest levels of government, expounding on such diverse topics as calligraphy's role in diplomacy, how to throw a State Dinner, and how best to survive the squall on an angry ocean.

After a virtual tour of the White House, Paulus will bring his followers to sea with him as he returns to his childhood home on Cape Cod, and thence onward to the Sonoma Coast. It is a journey time and place, and the evolutionary process of a calligrapher wielding an ancient art in a digital age.

Ling-Yen Jones Jewelry and Barbara Kelley Prints & Paintings

Barbara Kelley

This show marks the fifth time Barbara Kelley has exhibited her monotype prints and original paintings at the Dolphin. Kelley was born in remote Alaska where her first bassinet was the top drawer of a dresser, which may explain her search for new frontiers to explore and her desire for experimentation.

For example, she may employ found objects such as leaves, sea weeds, bird feathers, even snake skins in her prints. She also creates encaustic paintings, employing a hot wax technique that dates to ancient Egypt and is difficult to master.

Critics have noted that her prints exude "the simplicity reminiscent of Chinese and Japanese art, frequently evoking a meditative sense of inner calm." This influence can be seen not only in her landscapes but even in her "Shorebird" collection. This series and other examples of her work can be found on her web site www.mooncatcher.info.

Ling-Yen Jones

This month Ling-Yen Jones shares her personal vision of jewelry as not just ornamentation, but also as an artistic statement and symbolic representation of the personal and universal experience we all share.

Jones defines jewelry as creations "which are useful, artistic, symbolic expressions of a personal idea." A brief survey of her extensive collection at her on-line virtual gallery (www.ling-yendesigns.com) confirms that she lives up to that ideal.

Jones works with sterling silver, copper, gold, pearls, and colored stones. Her reasonably priced work is immediately recognizable to many because of the clean shapes and repeated motifs including leaves, birds, and windows. The effect of the jewelry when worn is subtle and dramatic.

Fine Art Exhibit

Through Sunday, September 4

Hats Off Dinner & Preview

Art in the Redwoods returns with Hats Off Dinner, our re-focused Top Hat Dinner with a more casual feel as we celebrate each other with "hats off." The evening festivities include a sneak-peek preview of the Fine Art Exhibit, the opportunity to purchase the art, small plate dinners, and VIP Passes to the Champagne Preview and Festival.

Friday's Champagne Preview is all about champagne (of course!), exploring the artists' booths and viewing the Fine Arts Exhibit.

The Art Festival Weekend opens on Saturday and continues Sunday. Live music and dance will be ongoing, the grounds will be filled with artisans offering their creations for sale, and a vast selection of tasty food and drink, including fresh baked pizza from our outdoor brick pizza oven.

Last Call to Artists to Submit Entries!

The heart of the festival is the fine art on exhibit with its absolutely beautiful, creative and dynamic works: oil paintings, acrylics, watercolors, pastels, works on paper, photographs, sculpture, woodworking, stained and fused glass, jewelry, and fiber arts. The exhibit will be on view through September 4.

Entry Applications. Artists! You can still submit entries for the Art in the Redwoods Fine Art Exhibit through Monday, July 11. Applications are on the Gualala Arts website under "Call to Artist" or in person at the Arts Center. Entries are $10/piece ($20/piece if artwork is not for sale) with prize awards from $50 to $500.

Quilt Raffle

“Moon Glow,” this year’s stunning quilt crafted by talented Quilt Guild artists is now on view at the Arts Center and it could be yours! Stop by to see this beauty and get your raffle tickets!

This is your yearly chance to win a quilt created and donated by Pacific Piecemakers Quilt Guild. Funds raised through the raffle are generously donated to the Gualala Arts Scholarship Fund (see page 14 for information about the program). Every year a lucky winner goes home with a beautiful quilt, and every year funds raised support budding artists. Now this is a win-win we love.

Moon Glow was quilted by Judy Riddle; pieced and finished by Joyce Gaudet, Renata Lopez, Dee Goodrich, Laura Hamilton and Judy Riddle.

Last Call for Artists to submit entries to the Fine Art Exhibit is Monday, July 11.

Enjoy the musical delights of The Roy Bogas and Friends Ensemble when they return to perform at the 14th annual Summer Chamber Music Weekend.

Pianist Bogas is a regular performer at many Chamber Music Series concerts, both as a featured artist and as an accompanist to other chamber musicians. He is being joined this year by his "friends" from the San Francisco Symphony, Axel Strauss and Amy Hiraga on violin, Nancy Ellis on viola and Peter Wyrick on cello.

"Music lovers are invited to hear one or both performances for a fulfilling weekend of superb music performed by top artists," says Steve Chell of the Chamber Music Committee. "This weekend continues the long tradition of top quality chamber music on the coast, in the intimate setting of the Gualala Arts Center Coleman Hall."

Saturday's program will feature String Quartet (the Bird), Op. 33, No. 3 by Haydn, Cello Sonata No. 3 in A Major by Beethoven, "Nigun" from "Baal Shem" for Violin & Piano by Bloch and Piano Quintet by Elgar.

Sunday's selections are Piano Quartet No. 1 in G Minor by Mozart, Violin Sonata No. 10 in G Major by Beethoven, "Night" for String Quartet by Bloch and Piano Quintet by Brahms.

“Hot cars under the cool redwoods!” That’s right, more than 100 custom/modified, hot rod, stock, sports and display-only cars, as well as the vintage dragsters that have become a signature of the event, will be on the Arts Center grounds for this 8th Annual Auto Show.

Auto Show angel Jim Grenwelge will be honored during the event, and artisan designer Kent Fuller, a veteran pioneer in the world of drag racing and hot rods, will be featured. He will present his original cult classic, 1962 Volksrod roadster in the Elaine Jacob Foyer.

A wide variety of tasty food and drink will be available beginning with breakfast selections by Black Oak Catering (7-10 am), and lunch featuring wood-fired pizza; beef, salmon, chicken, black bean burgers; hot dogs, side salads, whole fruit and chips. Lagunitas Brewing Company’s craft beers, wine, and soft drinks will also be available.

Award categories include Stock, Custom/Modified, Hot Rod, Sports Car and Display Only. “Special Awards” include Longest Distance Traveled, Most Creative, Best Paint, Best Motor, Best Interior, and Best of Show. Auto Show sponsors will also present awards, and attendees will vote for the Peoples’ Choice and Ladies’ Choice awards.

Pinewood Derby

Returning in support of the Auto Show for the sixth year, the races will again be run on Gualala Art’s state-of-the-art aluminum race track, complete with computerized time, speed, and results display. Youth and those young at heart are encouraged to design and build their own custom car to race.

Classifications include eight and under, nine through 13 years, 13 to 18 years, 18 years and older, Vintage, and Unlimited. Trophies will be awarded for both First and Second Place in each classification. One “Best Time Overall” trophy will be awarded to the car with the lowest total elapsed time in classes, with the exception of those in Vintage and Unlimited.

All entries in each class will also be judged for their artistic execution, and each class will have a Most Artistic award presented to one entry. There will also be an overall Most Artistic award presented to a single car regardless of class. All racers will receive participation medallions.

Another feature of this event will be the opportunity for any racer under 18 to leave their race car at the Arts Center to be included in the Automobilia fine art exhibit on display from July 1–31. Any race car left at the exhibit will be displayed for the remainder of the exhibit and will be eligible for a “People’s Choice” award for favorite Pinewood Derby car. First Place and Second Place awards will be given, with First Place receiving a ribbon and a $25 cash prize and Second Place receiving a ribbon and a $10 cash prize.

Register to enter the Derby

Registration is free for entries submitted by Sunday, July 10. After July 10 the cost to enter a race car will be $10.

Registration forms are available online at GualalaArts.org and at the Gualala Arts Center. Official Boy Scouts of America car kits can be purchased at the Arts Center for $5 or Heart of a Child Toys. Registrations will be accepted until 10:45 am on race day, but Gualala Arts encourages racers to take advantage of the free early registration.

This must-see Gualala Arts Theater production of La Cage aux Folles stars newcomer-to-the-stage Eric Wilder as Georges and veteran actor Teo Ariola as Albin/Zaza.

The production transports audiences to St. Tropez where Georges is the suave owner of a glitzy drag club. Albin is his high-strung star performer and romantic partner of 20 years. When Georges' son (from a one-night fling) announces his impending marriage to the daughter of a bigoted, right-wing politician, Georges and Albin come up with differing and hilarious ways to meet the family of the bride-to-be.

Castmembers include Lloyd Cross as Jacob, Liam Ignacio as Jean-Michel, Scott Ignacio as Monsieur Edouard Dindon, Kelley Kieve as Madame Marie Dindon, Kailey Schmidt as Anne Dindon, Pat Wilson as Jacqueline, and Harm Wilkinson as Francis. The beautiful and dangerous Les Cagelles include Bob Clafin, Michael Combs, Kim Ghezzi, Vanessa Ignacio, Cheryl Mitouer, Patricia Schwindt, Linda Weinstein, and Karen Wilder. Roxanne Clafin will make you feel welcome as our house hostess. Co-Directors are Teo Ariola and Dayle Farina; Musical Director is Don Krieger.

Enjoy a small plate, "Classic French Picnic" of baguette slices, brie and vegetarian pate, grapes, tree nuts, chocolate dipped strawberry, mini cheesecake, chocolate truffle

Written by Harvey Fierstein, lyrics and music by Jerry Herman, La Cage of Folles is based on the 1973 French play of the same name by Jean Poiret, which later inspired The Birdcage starring Robin Williams and Nathan Lane. La Cage aux Folles is presented by special arrangement with SAMUEL FRENCH, Inc.

Gualala Arts Creative Writing Contest

Submission Deadline:
Wednesday, August 31. 4 pm

The thirteenth annual writing contest offers $1,000 in prize money provided by The Sea Ranch Foundation and Gualala Rotary Club. This year the genre is "Creative Non-fiction," writing of factual prose that is also literary. Memoirs, North Coast histories, biographies, character sketches and personal reflections would all qualify and are suggested topics for consideration.

There is no entry fee and the contest is open to all full or part-time coastal residents from Elk to Timber Cove who have not previously had their non-fiction published in a book or national periodical. Local and school publications are exempt. Previous contest winners in this genre are not eligible to participate.

More information and entry forms are available at GualalaArts.org, the Arts Center, and the Coast Community Library in Point Arena. First Prize $250, Second Prize $150, and Third Prize $100 to be awarded in both Adult and Youth (13-18 years) Divisions.

The Awards Ceremony will be held at the Arts Center on Thursday, September 8, 7 pm. More information at 707-884-1138 or GualalaArts.org.

Letters from the Library

If you are new member of Gualala Arts, you may not know about our library which is upstairs in the workshop room. This is a lending library for Gualala Arts members only. We have approximately 2,500 books in our collection; all from member donations. The focus of this library is fine arts and crafts. We hope you will enjoy using this facility. We operate on an honor system, which means you sign out the books you want (in the binder just as you walk in the door.) We'd like the books to be returned in 2 weeks.

There has been little support or updates for the library in the last year, since our old computer system crashed. Thanks to a donation of a brand new computer plus new library software, we are ready to start maintaining the library more regularly and processing around 500 new donations we've received.

We're also restarting the display of new books which have recently been added to the library. You'll find these books on the low book case. The new books include: Multi-Media/Collage, Ceramics/Pottery, Pastels, Gourd Decoration, Stamping, Acrylics/Water Media and Digital expressions. Check them out!

As you might expect, we need volunteers to help get the library back in tip-top shape. If you like books and have a few hours of time now and then, we would love to have you on the library team. Some of the tasks include rearranging books in order on the shelves, checking for books that are out of date or in bad condition, labeling book spines and entering new books into the computer system. If this sounds like fun, please contact Sharon Nickodem at sharonnickodem@aol.com.

Gualala Arts Young Artist Scholarships

The Gualala Arts Young Artist Scholarship Fund is growing and thriving. Its committee was unable to award any scholarships this year, but the funds will carry over to help support qualified candidates next year. The Pacific Piecemakers Quilting Guild (PPQG) sponsors this program now in its seventeenth year through its annual quilt raffle at Art in the Redwoods.

The number of applicants varies from year to year so having reserve funds is useful when multiple qualified candidates apply. Last year there was one recipient, in 2014 there were three, and the year before the committee awarded four scholarships, ranging from $500 to $2,000.

Previous winners have gone on to a wide variety of programs in fields as various as painting, ceramic arts, music, performing arts, photography, and writing. Any graduating senior who demonstrates an interest in pursuing a career in the arts, and who resides from Fort Ross to Elk is eligible. Complete details and an application form will be posted early next year at the Gualala Arts web site under the "About Us" tab.

Awards Committee chair Nancy Kyle notes that these scholarships fulfill the mission of Gualala Arts by encouraging talented local young artists. Every visitor to Art in the Redwoods who purchases a raffle ticket for the quilt also contributes to this worthwhile program.
