

Jonqui Albin

Bird Activist Artist, Jonqui Albin is a full-time, life-time Artist. Now committed to Bird Arting for fun and preservation involvement. She applies her varied art and media experience to producing live, wild bird art and nature learning events; hikes, performances, workshops and tribute exhibits.

Jonqui's Big Action Art Bird Personalities with implied narratives are inspired by Habitat Sketchbooking. Sculptures, Paintings and drawings, are distinguish by Jonqui's trademark bold action style using industrial materials.

Historically she is a published illustrator, animation character designer, storyboard artist, TV program and ad spots video producer, nightclub and event multimedia installation artist and print and media graphic designer.

Best known for enthusiastic, innovative creativity, Jonqui continues to relentlessly pursue a lifestyle of original applications of vision. Her studio is based in her Sonoma, California; via San Francisco, Berkeley, and Venice Beach and Los Angeles. www.BirdArting.com, Facebook.com/jonqui.albin

Crane photo Robin Carpenter

Habitat Bird Sketching Meetups are the source of my creativity, art and education content intended to foster personal growth and planet stewardship involvement.

