EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

One conversation at a time...

I am constantly reminded how important each conversation is.

I am a firm believer that every single conversation matters. We don't always have control of our circumstances, but what we usually have control over is how we react to them.

Our actions and conversations change the dynamic of our surroundings. We have the ability to cause a ripple effect of those around us that is infectious in a positive (or negative) way.

It can be challenging, sometimes, with all the background noise of our surroundings and in our own thoughts. It can feel like my head is racing with thoughts and emotions that are too crowded...this is when I really need to take a deep breath and really listen before I react.

It is a minute-by-minute practice with so much demand to react to new situations & circumstances. Then we especially need to slow down and purposely look for the kind, respectful, loving response.

Try to look for the Love not the Fear in all of our new environments.

Be careful with the words you choose...they do make a difference!

On this Independence Day weekend I am reminded of the carefully chosen words of the "Declaration of Independence" that were thoughtfully crafted and then signed on July 4, 1776.

We came together to discuss our issues and worked on them together with conversations and carefully chosen words.

We all have that in common; we can decide to choose respectful, kind and loving words to use have a meaningful dialog.

Thank you, Thomas Jefferson, and all of you for thinking about the words you choose to use, how to present them and how they impact us all!

I believe we do make a difference -- one conversation at a time.

GUALALA ARTS CENTER | SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The following is an update of our current situation as of today, June 30, 2020. The Arts Center doors are still closed to the public until Aug 14 to help mitigate the spread of COVID-19. We have cancelled dozens of our events, workshops, fundraisers & exhibits starting March 16 through the summer and, already, some events in December. We hope to open for retail sales at Art in the Redwoods!

Some of the things that we ARE currently planning and doing to further our mission to promote the arts include:

- We continue using our creativity to re-imagine our future to “to promote public interest and participation in the arts.”

- Thankfully, we have MOVED INTO a prime location in Cypress Village with some very generous landlords Richard & Kristine Thomure. We have spent the last month on a remodeling plan of the space to meet our needs with current COVID regulations for a safe environment for our volunteers, artists and customers. WE LOVE OUR NEW DOLPHIN HOME! We have invited about 40 artists to help open the new space on July 4.

- We are opening with caution. Staff and Volunteers are being trained on our Covid Plan, temperatures are being checked before start of shift, sanitation of touched surfaces before, during and after shift, masks required for all, physical distancing enforced, limited number of clients in store, proper signage hung, no public restrooms, sneeze guard for register, , gloves for patrons that want to touch items, touch less credit card terminal installed, lots of free flowing Pacific Ocean air through space, plenty of room to wait outside on terraces, only one way doors (in-out) and lots of great art to inspire and delight you!

- Art in the Redwoods HAS been re-imagined! Our AIR committee is working hard to bring an online version of our 59th annual Art in the Redwoods to a device near you. At the center of the event will be our members' visual art exhibit with 15 categories including a new “video clips—one minute or less” category. Sponsors will be secured. WE WILL CONTINUE TO AWARD $5K in cash awards to winning artists thanks to our generous sponsors! GREAT NEWS! We are proofing the online exhibit entry, judging and viewing experience. We will also feature the performing arts offered by our community with new videos and “classic” performances from previous Art in the Redwoods. Culinary offerings will be a curbside “Boxed Hat” fundraiser dinner, complete with optional zoom tables, entertainment, and the first right to purchase art as usual, and lovingly homemade pies & pizza for curbside pick up throughout the weekend from your favorite sweetshop and FOPO bakers. If allowed by the county and state regulations, the in-person exhibit will be open for retail shopping and limited public viewings August 14 through August 30 at the Gualala Arts Center.

- We received 2 government loans and grants to assist with some of our payroll costs this spring. BUT those funds have run out and we are now hoping our Art in the Redwoods' fundraising efforts will carry us through the summer by our generous sponsors and membership.

- THANK YOU! Your membership renewals and donations continue making a difference. It helps to keep our staff employed, bills paid, organization strong, and planning and adapting to our future possibilities. Each dollar raised makes a difference! Thank You, Thank You, Thank You!!!!

- We continue to host a virtual exhibit titled, “Inferno: One Man's Journey of the Camp Fire Through Art” by Artist Brian Holderman. Works of Arts are for sale through our office by emailing Kendra info@gualalaarts.org.

- Planning a new exhibit entitled Shelter from the Storm: Art in the Time of Covid-19. We encourage artists & non-artists alike to create art while sheltering in their homes. We are looking forward to seeing what everyone has been working on to keep himself or herself busy while sheltering in their homes. Artists are posting using the hash tags #shelterfromthestormart & #gualalaarts

- As always, our Sketches newsletter is available online; we hope to mail out an Art in the Redwoods August edition of Sketches.

These are uncertain time for all of us to say the least. The board and finance committees are making prudent decisions with our Gualala Arts assets. If you find that you are in a position to help with the loss of our revenue stream, it would be greatly appreciated. We are looking to continue our mission – to promote public interest & participation in the arts since 1961 – well into the future.

WE make a difference with our choices.

Thank you for considering making kind ones!

The Dolphin Gallery and Gift Shop. A New Home to Welcome Artists and Art-Lovers Alike

The new Dolphin Gallery and Gift Shop opened July 4. The opening coincided with a new exhibit of jewelry by Ling-Yen Jones and the painting and prints of Barbara Kelley. The new location is at 39114 Ocean Drive, in Cypress Village, Gualala. Hours for the July 4 opening will be 11 am to 7 pm. Normal business hours will be Thursday through Monday, 11 am to 4 pm (closed Tuesday and Wednesday).

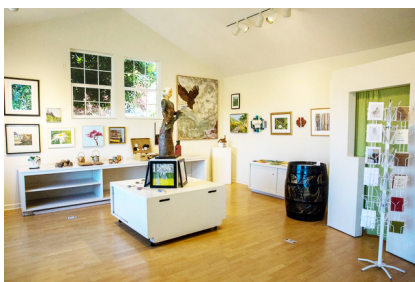

The Dolphin has been a welcomed option for art lovers and gift shoppers for decades. In its original location—at the Anchor Bay Hardware Store—shoppers could find the works of local artists in an area of the store dubbed “Gualala Arts Showroom”. With art, including wood carvings of dolphins, the name was changed to The Dolphin, a name which has remained unchanged for 50 years.

The Dolphin moved from Anchor Bay to Sundstrom Mall in Gualala in the 1970s where it established itself as a much loved retail store featuring gifts, jewelry, ceramics, and wood carvings. It also became (and continues to be) a hosting spot for new art exhibits. It's 40-year presence in downtown Gualala will continue, albeit in a new location, scheduled for opening July 4 at 11 am.

Supporting the Dolphin over the years has been a long list of volunteers who have donated their time, talent, energy and creativity. The warm reception visitors—locals and travelers alike—have received over the years has given the Dolphin a deserved reputation as a welcoming spot on Mendocino County's south coast.

visitors with a wonderful opening exhibit, including the jewelry of Ling-Yen Jones and the paintings and prints of Barbara Kelley. (See a separate story on Jones/Kelley on page 6.) A full story on the NEW Dolphin will appear in the August Sketches.

The new Dolphin Gallery and Gift Shop will bring much of the same to its new location and the new space will provide the opportunity to re-imagine its mission. And the July 4th weekend will provide

"Come Fly With Me"

A New Exhibit with Ling-Yen Jones and Barbara Kelley

The new Dolphin Gallery and Gift Shop in Cypress Village opened on Saturday, July 4 with a new exhibit featuring the jewelry of Ling-Yen Jones and the paintings and prints of Barbara Kelley. Now in a larger space the new Dolphin welcomes the community to explore the new space and see this exciting new exhibit Thursday through Monday from 11 am to 4 pm.

According to Ling-Yen Jones, "Come Fly With Me" is a journey. "I thought it was about learning more about my work with some of my favorite birds—the crane and swallow. However, it is also about learning how to transition from being at home 'sheltering in place' to exhibiting, showing, and sharing my work." Barbara Kelley's work is known to many on the coast who've discovered her prints and paintings at area galleries, or by visiting her studio in Sonoma County or at her home during the annual North Coast Artists Guild studio tour.

Talking about her pieces, Kelley says, "the central intention of my work is to create visual reflections of universal themes. I strive to create a visual language that is both evocative and straightforward. The title I give to each work holds a key to understanding its story." She may employ found objects such as leaves, sea weeds, bird feathers, even snake skins in her prints. Kelley also creates encaustic paintings, employing a hot wax technique that dates to ancient Egypt and is difficult to master.

Ling-Yen Jones shares her personal vision of jewelry as not just ornamentation, but also as an artistic statement and symbolic representation of both the personal and the universal experience we all share. Each hand-crafted piece is a one-of-a-kind creation, even when it is part of a series with repeated motifs. She wants her work to represent various themes such as new beginnings, changes, hope and personal growth. Jones lives up to that ideal, working with sterling silver, copper, gold, pearls and colored stones. The effect of the jewelry when worn is subtle and dramatic at the same time.

59th Annual Art in the Redwoods August 13 - 30 — Online! and More

The 2020 Art in the Redwoods takes place August 13-30, and it will be a unique event. Our plans include both online and traditional events, some of which will be reinvented for 2020.

We need sponsors to support Art in the Redwoods. It makes all the difference, particularly in a year where many events, exhibits, workshops and other activities which contribute to our annual revenue and fundraising were forced to be canceled, and we're uncertain about how many additional events scheduled in the near future will be held. That's why we're also hoping for sponsorships. There are many levels of sponsorships and we hope you'll find one that is appropriate. A complete list is available on the next two pages of this Sketches.

Another example is purchasing tickets for our traditional kickoff on Thursday evening. Our annual "Hats Off Dinner" is being re-imagined as the "Boxed Hat Dinner" fundraiser. In this time of take-out (in lieu of going out to dinner) the Boxed Hat Dinner Fundraiser allows us to create an event that is a bit social and a bit more fine dining. The four-course dinner will be a delicious gourmet drive-through experience with a choice of seafood, beef or vegetarian, including dessert to satisfy the cravings of your sweet tooth. To accompany the evening, the drive-thru will also have solutions for your thirst: Wine (including non-alcoholic wine) or sparkling water or soft drinks.

The Boxed Hat Dinner fundraiser is $150, and includes a $100 donation letter. Dinners will be available for pre-order and pre-payment by calling 707-884-1138. Pickup will be a drive-through affair, at a designated time between 2 pm and 4 pm, subject to availability. The "Boxed Hat Dinner" fundraiser is a great way to be a part of the opening night tradition at Art in the Redwoods.

Please look through the options and consider supporting Gualala Arts with a 2020 sponsorship.

Unless otherwise requested, all sponsors will be listed on our website and in Sketches, and posted at any in-person event we're allowed to have.

No paper registrations and no downloads.

2020 Registration is ONLINE ONLY.

Membership. It's Basic. And It Feels Good! Support Gualala Arts.

For almost 60 years, Gualala Arts has been focused on its mission: Promoting public interest and participation in the arts.

The Sonoma and Mendocino Coasts have long attracted artists of all types to visit and to become a part of the community, bringing with them their skills as performers, creators, teachers and ambassadors for the arts.

From a simple idea, the Mendonoma coastal community has watched this 12-acre site bring the arts and the community together by presenting classical music, chamber ensembles, pop music, bluegrass, folk, jazz in groups large and small, theater performances, art exhibits, workshops and classes and community events.

On occasion visitors come to be inspired by the art, and at other times they come for the peace and serenity offered by the grounds. The Sculpture Garden has grown to become a delight for young and old. The picnic area beckons visitors to bring and enjoy a lunch.

Art inspires us all. The beautiful setting lifts our spirits.

All of us at Gualala Arts encourage you to take a moment during these challenging times become a supporter of the arts in our community. Engagement with art and nature lifts our spirits, inspires us, and helps support our mental and spiritual health. Why not become a member today? It's as simple as visiting GualalaArts.org, and finding the drop-down menu "Support Us". There you will find ideas to join us by becoming a member, making a one-time donation, or including Gualala Arts in your legacy giving. We're here for you and will appreciate your gifts.

The New Dolphin Gallery and Gift Shop Welcomes Scott Chieffo & Joann Cassady for a New Exhibit August 1 through August 30, 2020

The August exhibit at the Dolphin Gallery and Gift Shop will pair photographer Scott Chieffo with ceramic artist Joann Cassady. The exhibit opens Saturday, August 1.

In the 15 years that he has been living on the Southern Mendocino County Coast, Scott Chieffo has developed an intimate photographic relationship with its unique landscape. His images capture the subtle beauty of the coast and forests with a highly unique, "painterly" style that emphasizes the quiet solitude of these landscapes. Chieffo's main photographic goal is to be able to communicate this unique viewpoint to others, such that they are able to look upon his images and develop a new and stronger appreciation for life's details. He believes that a fine art photographic image is most powerful if it can be viewed with increasing pleasure repeatedly for many years, beyond a strong initial impact.

Joann Cassady is an artist who sees her life as having gone full circle. After art school and a career in commercial graphics, she left the industry to follow her heart back to early childhood, playing in the backyard, squishing mud pies through her fingers. This time around, clay has replaced the mud "but the pleasure I get from holding the earth in my hands is just the same." Her pieces are all made by hand using coiling & pinching techniques and fired using different firing processes. "I don't use molds and there are no short cuts. The clay and the process can be unforgiving, even humbling at times, and not all pieces reach the intended end. But when they do, the magic in that moment is the inspiration that drives the process and fuels my passion to do it again."

Summer Cleaning Swap Meet at Gualala Arts Saturday, August 1 • 10 am to 7 pm

Gualala Arts is opening closets, unlocking storage cabinets, emptying bins and clearing the shelves, for a rarely seen but always welcomed spring / summer cleaning. The swap meet will include hundreds of wardrobe and related items, hats, shoes, accessories, costumes and clothing. A fun day of shopping and all of the proceeds will benefit Gualala Arts. This is a one day blow-out event. Everything must go. All items are available for just a donation—take and give what you feel is fair.

Anyone who's been to a theater performance (or similar event) at Gualala Arts can imagine just what might be inside those closets, lockers and bins, and on the shelves—upstairs, downstairs, backstage—and in other locales in and around the Mendocino Coast.

Make plans to explore all that's part of Gualala Arts' Swap Meet. You might just find that perfect gift, vintage costume or wardrobe accessory you've been looking for. Or better yet, find an unexpected treasure.

2021 Workshops

Making Plans For Next Year

While 2020 has been a difficult year for all of us, we are making plans for 2021. Included in those plans is a new slate of workshops. Gualala Arts offers workshops for almost all interests including:

Cooking (Sushi, Instant Pot, Fermentation, Nutrition)
• Painting (Oil, Watercolor, Acrylic, Chinese brush) •
Drawing (Basics, Sketchbook) • Quilting and Sewing
• Fitness (Tai Chi, Martial Arts, Yoga, Aerobics)
• Conversation & Dialogue • Ceramics (Pottery, Sculpture) • Marketing • Photography (General Introduction, Digital Basics, Advanced) •
Theater (Performance, Singing, Improv) •
Community events and many more.

You can propose or teach a workshop next year. Gualala Arts is now accepting workshop proposals for 2021. The deadline for proposals is September 1, 2020.

You can also become a Workshop Docent. Behind every successful Gualala Arts workshop is a successful workshop docent! Docents guide the process, facilitate communication, help with set-up and ensure the instructor understands procedures and requirements.

Planning ahead enables us to offer a full year of activities to better serve you. Contact the Gualala Arts office at 707-884-1138 or send an email to info@gualalaarts.org with your name, contact information and your workshop idea.
