NEWS OF THE WEEK:

Thank You First Responders For All You do!

We Are Temporarily Closed Due to weather Conditions

Until further notice
Gualala Arts Center is temporarily closed
due to weather conditions and power outages
If you need to get in touch with us,
our temporary phone number is 707.343.0520
Stay safe everybody!

Staff will try to check voice mails and emails...but no guarantees...

Scott, Kendra and I (at least one or more of us) are checking in at the center & dolphin everyday to make sure all is ok...soaked but so far so good...

The Dolphin Gallery is open for regular hours, 10 am to 4 pm every day (except Wednesday) as long as we have power, and the Dolphin has a couple charging stations for our Gualala Arts Membership or whoever needs a little electricity.

Hope this email finds everyone hanging in there and surviving riding out the storms...looks like more to come....

Please reach out if you need assistance with anything personal for your safety or comfort...our Gualala Arts family is very resourceful:)

Be well everyone...

Please try to stay off roads to let emergency crews do their business!

THANK GOODNESS FOR EACH OF THEM!!!!

David "Sus" Susalla

Canceled:

The Beo String Quartet chamber music performance at Gualala Arts, scheduled for Sunday, January 15, has been CANCELED.

Please read Nancy Padgett's letter (below).

Dear Donors and Supporters of Chamber Music at Gualala Arts,

I am writing to announce that the concert for this Sunday, January 15, with the Beo String Quartet, has been canceled.

The current inclement weather and its ongoing aftereffects have "done us in," so to speak. We cannot in good conscience ask our performers to travel up Hwy 1. Fierce winter storms such as we have been warned to expect might make it difficult for urban dwellers who don't live here to navigate Hwy 1. Safety is our first priority.

As well, we want all of you to have a safe experience at our Chamber Music performances.

Tickets already purchased through Gualala Arts can be turned in :

- for tickets for another concert.
- for a refund check from Gualala Arts.
- or for a donation acknowledgment from Gualala Arts.

If you purchased through Eventbrite, ask for a refund from them.

Thank you for your understanding. Please let me know if you have any questions. And, please, be extra cautious until we reach drier weather.

Yours for Chamber Music at Gualala Arts,
Nancy Padgett
