*Festival of Trees 2023
Mrs. Claus' Bake Shop
Competition*

Who doesn't love something sweet, especially during the holidays! Remember Grandma's sweet rolls, Daddy's fudge, Aunt Joyce's cinnamon yum yums? Share you favorite tasty treat! You don't need to be a 'Mrs.' to enter the contest, everyone is welcome to participate; children, adults, merchants, groups, etc.

Submit your registration form describing your sweet treat by November 20, 2023 to Gualala Arts so a presentation card can be created for your goodies. Please be sure to indicate specifics (gluten free, vegan, no nuts, sugar free, etc.)

All Bake Shop contributions should be received at Gualala Arts between 9-11 am on November 22

All baked good / treats will be considered donations to the Gualala Arts and will be made available for sale during the festival as part of the fund raiser. The baker / maker will receive a donation form for tax purposes.

We kindly ask that the baked goods /treats be provided on disposable plates or platters, they will then be packaged and sold, first come, first serve.

We thank you in advance for sharing he sweetness of the season with others for the benefit of the Gualala Arts Center!
