Mrs. Claus Wants You!

Join Mrs. Claus' Bake Shop!

Who can resist a sweet treat, especially during the holidays? Whether it's Grandma's sweet rolls, Dad's fudge, Aunt Joyce's cinnamon yum-yums, or Uncle Ray's Passion Punch, now's the time to share your favorite festive delicacies! What better way to spread the holiday spirit than by offering your seasonal specialty for all to enjoy? And remember—you don't have to be a "Mrs." to join in! Everyone is welcome to participate—children, adults, merchants, groups, and more.

To participate, submit your registration form with a description of your sweet treat by November 23, 2026 to Gualala Arts so a presentation card can be prepared for your goodies. Be sure to note any specifics such as gluten-free, vegan, nut-free, sugar-free, etc.

All contributions for Mrs. Claus' Bake Shop should be delivered to the Gualala Arts Center on Wednesday, November 25, between 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM.

All baked goods and treats will be considered donations to Gualala Arts and will be sold during the festival to support the organization's fundraising efforts. Bakers will receive a donation form for tax purposes.

We kindly ask that all baked goods be provided on disposable plates or platters. They will be displayed and sold on a first-come, first-served basis.

Thank you for sharing the sweetness of the season with the community and supporting Gualala Arts!
